Representative Kane Welcomes New Legislative Aide to Team at State House

Boston – State Representative Hannah E. Kane (R-Shrewsbury) has hired Anna Darrow, recent college graduate, as her new Legislative Aide at the State House.

Anna was born and raised in Burlington, Vermont and graduated from Trinity College (Hartford) in May 2019. At Trinity, she majored in Political Science and was a founding member of Alpha Chi Omega Sorority, which raised awareness on campus and worked with local women’s shelters in Hartford to address domestic violence and aide in its prevention.

As a Political Science major, Anna interned at the Connecticut State House her junior and senior years of college, working for a state senator as well as a lobbying firm to gain insight into the legislative and political processes. She researched legislation, attended committee meetings and public hearings, and worked to solve constituent issues. Her internships in Hartford, as well as a summer internship at the Massachusetts State House following graduation, inspired Anna to work as a Legislative Aide for Representative Kane.

Anna has always been interested in pursuing a career in public service and government. As the descendant of a 100-year old family run orchard in Vermont, she is personally aware of the problems small farms face and is looking forward to working closely with the Food System Caucus, which Rep Kane founded last year. She is also excited to start her career in Boston, where her parents met as young professionals.

“I feel incredibly lucky to have the opportunity to begin my career as a young woman working for Representative Kane,” said Anna. “Being able to come to work every day and help such an intelligent and dedicated female legislator who cares so much for her community is inspiring. I’m very excited to get to know the people of the 11th Worcester district and work closely with them.”

“I am very excited to have Anna join my office as Legislative Aide. Her passion for public service and appreciation of the critical role she will play in my office will make her an excellent partner in working to advocate for and support the residents of Shrewsbury and Westborough,” remarked Representative Kane.

Constituents who need assistance navigating state agencies or have questions or concerns relating to state policies are encouraged to contact Representative Kane’s office at (617)-722-2810 to discuss your issue and/or concern.
